Debating Win
Well done to our debating team this week (Harrison, Grace and William). Hill End debaters spoke on the affirmative that that a holiday at home is better than one away. Our team recorded a win against Glen Alice Public School.
Well done!
Hill End students have won three of the four debates in the competition so far. Our last debate in the round robin phase of the competition is against Sofala Public School on Tuesday next week. Liam, Jinja and Harrison look set to produce a a strong finish for our school.

Welcome to Ronald
This week we welcomed a new student to Hill End Public School. Ronald joins our group of year 4 students and is looking forward to swimming starting soon!

Staffing Changes
While Mrs Rayner is off relaxing and enjoying her maternity leave we have made two changes to staff.
Mrs Groves has kindly accepted the role as our transition teacher on Wednesdays with our ‘Little Diggers’. I would also like to extend a warm welcome to Mrs Smyth who will be teaching at our school every Thursday. Mrs Smyth is a highly experienced educator and has taught as a teacher and recently as Deputy Principal at Eglington Public School.

Presentation Evening
There are only three weeks to go until our amazing 2014 Hill End PS Presentation Evening. Set the date in your social calendar now and come along to support our wonderful students. There will be a free BBQ 6 – 7pm with student musical performances, songs and a very funny play to start at 7pm. Everyone is welcome!

Parents & Friends
There will be a P&F meeting at the school next Thursday at 3pm. The meeting will cover consultation processes for the School Management Plan and planning for the Presentation evening. Please come along as I would like parents to run the BBQ! Enjoy the weekend – keep cool.

THE BRAVE SKORPY

Once upon a time there was a dog named Skorpy. Skorpy was a smart, loving, work dog, he was a border collie. Skorpy had an owner named Max. Max was an 86 year old man. Max lived with Skorpy at 126 Flock St in South Sydney. Max was loving and liked to take Skorpy to the beach and play fetch.

It all started when Max and Skorpy were shopping. After purchasing the groceries, Max was pushing the trolley to the car. First, Max put all the shopping in the car. Skorpy and Max hopped in the car. Because the shop was far away from Max’s house it was a long drive. Max and Skorpy headed out onto the highway, just then a car swerved into their car.

Max tried to pull it back onto the road but he couldn’t. The car rolled over 4 hectic times and landed on its roof.

Max was really hurt and couldn’t move, but Skorpy was able to move. Skorpy knew that Max was hurt.

Just then, the car started burning. Skorpy pulled and pulled. He managed to get Max out.

As soon as Skorpy pulled Max away from the burning car, BANG the car was engulfed in flames. A helicopter came to take Max to hospital. Max survived the crash.

After Max got out of hospital he gave Skorpy a big hug.

“Thank you” Max said gratefully.

Max said “Let’s get you a friend”

Max and Skorpy went to the pound. Max got a little dog named Sam.

So Max, Skorpy and little Sam went to the beach and played fetch. Harrison Y5

Douglas to the rescue

Once, upon a time there was an intelligent and posh dog named Douglas. He lived in a castle far, far away. His owner was the beautiful, good-looking princess named Esmerelda. One day some evil, sneaky goblin’s kidnapped Esmerelda from the castle. They took her to a dark, eerie cave.

Douglas was upset. While Douglas was at the family restaurant called Mac Bone’s enjoying a delicious hot dog he saw a black van go past. He saw Esmerelda’s anxious face in the window of the dusky van.

He quickly snatched his food order and went outside. Douglas saw two vans, he didn’t know which one was which, so he picked one and followed it.

The car led to a house. It was then, he realised that he had followed the incorrect car. Then he heard a huge ‘boom’, the van that had Esmerelda in it crashed into a tree nearby a cavern. There was an enormous dragon guarding the cavern.

When the goblins fell into a deep sleep Douglas cut the chain that was tied around the dragon and lead him away.

On the way back Douglas meet a dog named Pebbles, he fell in love with her.

They raced back to rescue Esmerelda, they kidnapped her back and they lived happily ever after. Jinja Y4
Debating

Everyone is so impressed by all of the students participating in the ‘Small Talk’ debating competition. Each week sees improvement in the student’s skills. It is certainly getting harder to judge, with all this week’s debates very close. Thank you to our timekeepers William, Harrison Liam and Jinja. You all do a great job!

This week’s topic was
“A holiday at home is better than one away”
Glen Alice PS vs Hill End PS (winner Hill End PS)
Mumbil PS vs Sofala PS (winner Mumbil PS)
Stuart Town PS vs Goolma PS (winner Goolma PS)

‘Little Diggers’

We welcomed Ruby to ‘Little Diggers’ this week. She had a great time with Toby and Beth playing with lego and play dough. When the older students joined them they participated in stories, singing and percussion with Mrs Groves. Then, it was outside games with Mr G before lunch.
